As a young boy, he opened two stands selling newspapers and magazines and hired other boys to run them. For about six months in 1862, he also published his own newspaper, the Weekly Herald. Edison's most famous invention was the light bulb. Edison did not invent electric lights; there were some lights . they were some lights that were like today's street lights. They were very, very bright so people did not want them inside their house. At home, people used gaslights. But they were dangerous and they flickered a lot. He put together what he knew about gaslights and invented a system of electric lighting. ۲۹.
